

A group of people is crossing a suspension bridge over a lush green forest. In the foreground, a woman in a white t-shirt and a light blue cap is walking. Behind her, a woman in a red shirt and blue jacket is sitting in a wheelchair. A woman in a grey tank top is assisting her. Further back, a man in a dark shirt is also assisting. In the distance, another person is walking on the bridge. The bridge has a metal mesh railing and is surrounded by dense green foliage.

Let's explore the greatest living postcard – together

Help people with disabilities access Vancouver's parks and trails.

British Columbia Mobility Opportunities Society is holding a volunteer orientation day from 12noon – 3pm on Sunday, May 22 at Pacific Spirit Park. Find us in the main parking lot at 4915 West 16th Ave. Food will be provided.

Info: 604-688-6464 ext. 117 or eric@disabilityfoundation.org.